BREAKOUT SESSIONS

BRANDON SITLER

Over a decade of experience in the floral industry already behind him, owner/designer Brandon Sitler's exquisite and unique creations have been admired all over Greater Cleveland and have won several awards including "Best Flowers" in Fox 8's HOT LIST as well as "Best Florist" in Scene Magazine's Best of Cleveland.

In addition to weddings, funerals and day-to-day bouquets, Sitler's designs have been displayed at notable local events such as Art Cares, Pandemonium, HRC Dinner and many more. Urban Orchid has also been called on to do floral work for many of Cleveland's top corporations, including Lincoln Electric, Eaton Corporation, PNC Bank, Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland Browns Hospitality, Fleet Response and Charter One Bank among others.

MARK HARRIS

A native of Shaker Heights, Ohio, Mark began his collegiate career playing cornerback at Iowa Central Junior College, where he was a two year All Conference, 1st team All Region Cornerback, and then transferred to Kent State University, where he was the starting cornerback for 2 years. After college, Mark continued to pursue his passion in the Arena and National Football Leagues. After competing at both the college and professional level, Mark transitioned to a career as a personal trainer, and later founded Raw Talent Sports in the summer of 2006.

As the founder and CEO of Raw Talent Sports, Mark is responsible for the training dozens of Division I college athletes, as well as current athletes in the NFL and MLB. His roster of clients includes Russell Branyon, Nate Clements, Tina Davis, Denzel Ward, Super bowl champ Frank Clark, 2x BigTen MVP Connor Cook, Najee Goode Jacksonville Jaguars Super Bowl Champ, many college athletes, and several area high schools.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

SHELLEY TAXEL

Shelley Taxel is dedicated to providing personalized, entertaining and genuine dining experiences to all. She began her career in hospitality, 20 years ago, as a server, to support herself while studying to become an opera singer. As she pursued that dream, Shelley worked with various independent restaurants and restaurant groups, in Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Chicago, including Cameron Mitchell Restaurants, and Naha Restaurant with acclaimed Chef Carrie Nahabedian and noted Sommelier Rachel Lowe. It was during her time at Naha, that Shelley realized she had developed an enthusiasm for the hospitality industry, food, and wine. The amazing team at Naha encouraged Shelley to delve further into this growing passion and it was this encouragement that set the direction for her future.

Shelley returned to Cleveland in 2016 and became part of the management team at the original Moxie the Restaurant and Red the Steakhouse in Beachwood. In 2018, she joined Fire Food and Drink, Chef Douglas Katz's flagship fine dining restaurant on Shaker Square, as General Manager and Wine Director, where she remained until the restaurant's closure in 2020. Shelley's time at Fire Food and Drink provided her the platform to create a unique wine program, highlighting old world and lesser known wine regions, continue building her depth of wine knowledge and pursue her favorite part of hospitality, sharing that knowledge with her guests and team.

KAYLA LUPEAN

Hello! I'm Kayla with Kayla Lupean Photography and I have been photographing weddings and families for over ten years in Northeast Ohio and beyond. I am passionate about capturing timeless and candid images for both my clients and my family. I am excited to help you learn some tips and tricks to take better photos for yourself, your friends and your family!

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

SARAH EZZIE HAINES

Sarah Ezzie Haines is a certified personal trainer and yoga instructor. She has been instructing fitness classes since her high school days. She shadowed a personal trainer as part of an independent study and went on to college at John Carroll University where she founded their group exercise program in 1999. The program is still going strong! She led group fitness classes at Progressive Insurance and Bank Of America, as well as serving as a personal trainer at Mind and Body Fitness.

Sarah is currently the Senior Manager of Wellness for SITE Centers Corp where she not only teaches fitness classes but leads the successful employee wellness program Make It Happen. The 32 week program takes a holistic approach and focuses on employee wellbeing for all elements - physical, emotional, social and financial. Sarah has been a SITE Centers employee for 11 years and finds extreme gratification from building strong relationships with employees and helping them build healthier lifestyles.

She resides in Shaker Heights with her husband Darin and 3 children Isaiah, Aaliyah and Grace as well as her dog Milo.

ELLIE LEMASTERS

Hello! My name is Ellie and I work at Aldi US as an Operations Analyst. I discovered Macrame at a local workshop a little over a year ago and have loved the craft ever since. I'm excited to show you just how simple it is to create a beautiful plant hanger!

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

DOUGLAS KATZ

Chef Douglas Katz is the owner of several restaurants in Cleveland including Zhug, Chimi and Amba (late October 2020). He built his career as the chef proprietor of fire food and drink over almost 20 years at Shaker Square.

For over two decades, Chef Katz has been celebrated for his unwavering support of local farmers and food artisans. In 2014, the prestigious James Beard Foundation nominated him for best Chef of the Great Lakes Region.

Chef Katz is a national and international advocate for a food system that is sustainable, healthful, and local. He serves as a chef ambassador for the Monterey Bay Aquarium's Cooking for Solutions program, which promotes environmentally responsible fishing and fish farming. In 2006 he was selected to attend Slow Food's Terra Madre conference in Italy where delegates from over 150 member nations share ideas for keeping alive small-scale agriculture and sustainable food production.

Chef Katz has served as president of Cleveland Independents, an organization of 90 locally owned restaurants that nurtures and promotes local independent restaurants. He is a past board member of Positively Cleveland, and currently serves on the board of the Countryside Conservancy in the Cuyahoga Valley National Park. He consults frequently with media and civic leaders on local food initiatives. Chef Katz was named a Champion for Sustainability in 2011 by the group Entrepreneurs for Sustainability. In 2010 he was recognized in Crain's Cleveland Business "Who's Who, 150 names to know in Northeast Ohio."

Chef Katz is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America and holds a B.S. from the University of Denver School of Hotel and Restaurant Management. Prior to opening fire he served as executive chef of Moxie the restaurant, and worked at other acclaimed restaurants including The Little Nell in Aspen, Colorado and Wildwood Restaurant in Portland, Oregon.
